

Bylaws of Central Texas Republican Women

For approval by Membership March 21, 2022

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization shall be: Central Texas Republican Women. The address of this organization shall be P.O. Box 24, Belton, TX 76513.

ARTICLE II – OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this organization shall be:

- To work for the election of the Republican Party's nominees.
- To promote an informed electorate through political education.
- To increase the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government through active political participation.
- To facilitate cooperation among local Republican Women's clubs.
- To foster loyalty to the Republican Party and to promote its principles and candidates in all elections including non-partisan elections.

ARTICLE III – POLICY

Section 1. Organization Membership: This organization and its members shall be members of the Texas Federation of Republican Women and the National Federation of Republican Women, shall support their objectives and policies, and shall pay per capita dues and the annual service charges to said organizations.

Section 2. Registered PAC: This organization shall be registered with the Texas Ethics Commission as a Political Action Committee.

Section 3. Endorsement Policy.

- A. The Club as a whole and its President and Political Activities Chair shall not publicly endorse any candidate for public office in contested Republican primaries, runoff elections, and special elections, and/or non-partisan elections when more than one Republican is in the race. Individual members of this organization may work for the candidate of their choice in contested Republican primaries, but not in the name of the Club or Federation.
- B. No candidate shall use the TFRW logo in any political advertising, and any political advertising shall contain the following disclaimer: "This endorsement is given by the individual(s) only, NOT the Texas Federation of Republican Women."

Section 4. Candidate Endorsement Exemption: This article pertains only to contests between Republican candidates for public office. If the President or Campaign Activities Chairman is a candidate, or whose husband, or another family member, she shall be exempt from this rule, but may not endorse in the name of the organization.

Section 5. Controversial Issues: This organization and its officers shall not issue statements or pass resolutions on controversial issues in the name of the organization without first polling its members and obtaining a two-thirds (2/3) written vote of approval of the total membership.

Section 6. Delivery of Records: All officers and committee chairmen and vice chairmen shall deliver all records, files, passwords, social media administrative rights, and properties of the Club to their successor before December 31 of the year in which she is retiring from office, or within 3 days of leaving the position if earlier than December 31, unless otherwise directed by the Club President or Executive Committee. Failure to meet the deadlines may result in the termination of her membership by the club.

Section 7. Lobbying: There shall be no lobbying with Legislators using the name of the Texas Federation of Republican Women by any federated local club or any individual member without the express permission of the Board of Directors of the Texas Federation of Republican Women.

Section 8. Fiscal Year: The fiscal year of this club shall be from January 1 through December 31.

Section 9. Candidate Fairness: After the end of the candidate filing period for any office and ending the day after the final election for that office, it is the policy of TFRW that all Republican candidates for that office shall be treated fairly and equitably. When one Republican candidate for an office is invited to speak at a Federation or local club meeting, then all Republican candidates for that office shall be offered equal presentation time at the same meeting or another meeting before the election.

Section 10. Split Ticket. Neither the Club nor an individual member shall advocate a split ticket, support an opposition party candidate, or act against the NFRW or State Federation policies and bylaws.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility:

- A. Membership in Central Texas Republican Women shall consist of ten or more members who pay the annual per capita dues and service charges to the Texas Federation of Republican Women and whose bylaws and objectives are not in conflict with the Texas Federation of Republican Women and the National Federation of Republican Women and who have filed as a Political Action Committee with the Texas Ethics Commission.
- B. Any woman believing in the philosophy of the Republican Party and in the objectives of this organization shall be eligible for membership.
- C. She shall be a registered voter.
- D. A member in good standing shall be a member who has paid the required dues for the current calendar year. The dues amount for primary members will be stated in the Club's standing rules and amended as required.
- E. Member Dues must be paid for at least one month and at least one meeting must be attended prior to the privilege of voting.

Section 2. Classification of Membership:

- A. Primary – Any woman who believes in the philosophy of the Republican Party and the objectives of the local club and who pays the required annual dues is classified as a Primary member.
